

Unfortunate Drowning

11 Jun 1851 Newspaper Article

Original document source:

The South-Western American. (Austin, Tex.), Vol. 2, No. 49, Ed. 1, Wednesday, June 11, 1851, p.2

de Cordova, P., editor

Dolph Briscoe Center for American History, University of Texas, Austin TX

Digital document source:

The Portal to Texas History, University of North Texas

<http://texashistory.unt.edu/ark:/67531/metaph79698/>

This PDF document was obtained from the Bosque County Historical Commission.

www.bosquehc.org

UNFORTUNATE ACCIDENT.

As Mr. Albert Barton, a worthy, industrious, sober and highly respectable young man was ferrying a wagon and team across the Brazos, opposite Fort Graham, on the 21st of May, the boat filled with water and sunk. Mr. Barton was unfortunately drowned, the balance of persons succeeded in saving themselves. He leaves a wife and two children to mourn his death.
