Col E. S. C. Robertson

Dear Sir

after my Kindest Regards to you and family I will informe you that I have left Graham or I should have said the town of Robertson but I dow believe it has lost the name it is useless fore me to say to you the varrous causes fore this.

when I left there about the first January I gave my note fore seventy two dollars baring teen per cent frome date to your agent Mr Hillsman with the understanding that I was not to be pyehead[?] the note was drawn in favor of you and Jones you now that times is hard and money is scarce I would have liked to pay you in a good young horse but I understand from the grocery Keeper in town that Mr Hillsman has let him have my note to pay his grocery bill. now I dow not think this is wright between man and fare I think I would pay you as soon Mr Hillsman would I would like fore you to stop that arrangement if it suits you to dow so MrA. D. Martin requested me to say to you that has payed your agent his Rent.

we are all out of the union up here but Hillsman Eubank and McKisick.

wheet cropes are looking fine in this upper country

no news of impotence

please to let me hear } yours Respectfully from you soon } Jackson Puckett"
