Col Robeson

Dear Sir

I have bin looking for you up for some time but you haave failed to have come aording to the time you thought. Times her is dull as could be expected nothing doing in any thing in this quarter I have bin sick ever since I got home but I am now getting stout again - things her is dustryp dull I am doing nothing & not sitted what I will do as yet I am taking in about 15000 of Sand very near have it fenced & if I can have it broke I shall have it in corn perhaps I shall be down in this quarter before long I suppose that you will hear from B. D. Kimball about his agency he wants to know from you what to do Eubanks wants him to give up his position to him for $20000 Let him know what he shall do for he sais that you promised him that you will let him know as he is holding under you - I have collected for you 120⁰⁰ doll I will or can get Ruckitts note at any time Ruckitt has lost his other or last wife all will yours

As aurnally
